COMMISSION/TERMS OF PAYMENT

Herein VPMC, LLC, d/b/a, "The Virginian-Pilot" is defined as the "Publisher."

- a. A courtesy discount of 15% may be offered to advertising agencies. No such discount will be offered when advertising is placed on the basis of a contract rate or when using any other applicable discounts. Before any courtesy discount will be extended, however, an advertising agency must accept joint and several responsibilities with advertiser for payment of all advertising placed. Agencies acting only as placement agents, with no acceptance of payment responsibility, will not be eligible for any discount. Extensions of courtesy discounts to an agency are discretionary and reserved solely unto the Publisher. Neither agencies nor advertisers may combine accounts or contracts to arrive at a higher contract level. Publisher reserves the right at any time to require agencies to provide evidence of authority to act on advertiser's behalf and/or require acknowledgement and/or acceptance by advertiser of any advertising placed for publication or any contract. Extensions of courtesy discounts to an agency are discretionary and reserved solely unto the Publisher.
- b. Notwithstanding anything contained herein, Publisher may, at any time, including with regard to advertising placed by contract, condition the placement of advertising on Publisher's collection of a cash-in-advance payment for the full amount of such advertising prior to scheduling any advertisement(s) for publication. Any advertiser or agency submitting advertising for placement on open account credit, which shall include advertising placed subject to a contract not payable in full, in advance, must be accompanied by a completed Virginian-Pilot credit application. Any credit request must be approved by the Publisher before any advertisement will be scheduled for publication. If credit is extended by Publisher, the subsequent placement of advertising by advertiser and/or an agency constitutes such advertiser and/or agency's agreement to Publisher's credit term and conditions, which shall include, but not be limited to, the following: unless otherwise specified by Publisher, bills are generated on the first of each month for the previous month's charges and payment shall be due on or before the 15th day of the month referred to as "Billing Date" on the statement for such charges. Interest shall accrue on any past-due balance at the rate of eighteen percent (18%) per annum, until paid. Should Publisher determine to involve an attorney for issues related to the advertising or to collect any past-due balance, the advertiser and/or agency shall pay attorney's fees equal to thirty-three and one-third percent (33 1/3%) of the past-due balance, or actual attorney's fees as incurred by Publisher, whichever is greater, together with all costs of collection, including charges assessed to Publisher by any collection agency. Publisher may request additional credit information from or require a new credit application of agency or advertiser at any time. Through its submission of any credit documents, insertion orders or contracts to Publisher and continuing thereafter, advertiser represents and warrants that all information contained in any such credit documents, insertion orders and/or contracts is and remains true and correct and may be relied upon for any reason, by Publisher or any of Publisher's divisions and subsidiaries, unless and until advertiser gives notice to Publisher, in writing, that any information currently or previously provided has changed.

NATIONAL RATE POLICY

- a. Publisher reserves the right to revise advertising rates at any time. All insertion orders and contracts are accepted subject to this reservation. Disclaimers on insertion orders and/or contracts submitted by agency or advertiser are ineffective and void unless expressly accepted by Publisher.
- b. Alcoholic beverage advertising accepted subject to Publisher's Standards of Acceptability.

- c. There shall be added to any charges, amounts equal to any taxes, however designated, levied or based on such charges or on the publication of advertisements. These include state and local privilege or excise taxes based on such gross revenue, and any taxes on amount in lieu thereof paid or payable by Publisher in respect of the foregoing, exclusive however, of any taxes based on net income.
- d. No insertion order or contract is considered accepted by the Publisher until approval is given for that insertion order or contract by the Publisher's credit office. Additionally, no advertisement shall be considered accepted by Publisher until published. Any advertisement is subject upon submission to Publisher's applicable Contract & Copy Regulations, which may be changed at any time and from time-to-time in Publisher's sole discretion.
- e. Rate may vary due to rounding after application of discounts.
- f. Publisher may provide notice of changes to the rates, discounts or production data or specifications set for in the national advertising rate card on Publisher's website. If prospective notice is given, any such change shall be deemed to have changed as of the date specified regardless of whether the website itself is so changed.
